AGORA Registration

If your institution is an academic, government or research institution located in one of the countries listed below, you may be eligible to join AGORA (check eligibility). Please register by completing this form. Only one registration is required per institution.

Once we receive your registration, we will issue a common username and password for the use of all staff at your institution, to your director and chief librarian. Should your institution not have a librarian, we will send the username, password and instructions for access to the journals to your director.

If you are a member of a university or professional school, your institution might already be registered with AGORA. Please check our list of REGISTERED UNIVERSITIES/PROFESSIONAL SCHOOLS before registering. If you find your institution's name in the list, then you have to contact your librarian for password and access instructions.
